Nashville, Tenn., September 15.—A letter from the adjoining county of Robinson says that seven negroes were arrested as implicated in the murder of one Lee Lahrado. One of the negroes was taken to Saddleville on Sunday, and it is reported that he confessed to the crime and named the accomplices.

A Springfield special to the American says that at 12 o'clock Tuesday night a mob of one hundred armed men came into the town and began to batter in the doors of the jail containing two of the negroes charged with the murder. Old Moses Lahrado and four suspected negroes were in the hands of the mob and two others were in the jail, also a negro, named Joe Ramsey, who murdered a Miss Holt.

A special to the American this morning from Guthrie, Kentucky, of September 15,--2:30 a. m., says: Jim Siggins, one of the Lahrado murderers, was captured at Paddock a few days ago and brought to Saddleville for trial. He made a full confession yesterday. There were seven negroes implicated in the murder. The trial not being finished parties were put on guard at Saddleville last night. This morning at one o'clock a masked party of fifty men was seen a half mile from Saddleville armed with shot guns and holding a consultation. Twenty men were seen passing here at 12 o'clock going to Saddleville. No doubt they will lynch the seven negroes before morning.

Springfield, Ky., September 15.—3 a. m.—Arch Jamison and Jack Bell were taken by the mob and will be hanged. Ramsay was left dead on the jail floor filled with bullets. The mob left quietly. The mob broke open several blacksmith shops and got tools. They broke down the doors of the jail and went into the cells and took out two negroes and left town with them securely tied and riding in front of the mob. Everything was quiet. The citizens went to the jail after the mob had left and found Ramsey lying on the floor riddled with bullets. None of the mob are known. They went west on the Clarkville road. Some citizens asked where they would find the prisons. The mob remarked that the buzzards would find them. It is said that all the negroes will be hanged together.

Chicago, Ill., September 15.—The analysis of the figures received from Maine this forenoon shows pretty conclusively that Davis will be elected, provided he can gain 90 votes over last year, from the two hundred towns to be heard from. This conclusion is arrived at in this way: Davis has gained in three hundred and forty-eight towns 402 votes over the returns of '78. This leaves him only 90 votes to gain in order to tie with Plaidist. It seems certain that Davis will make a much larger gain than 90 votes, because the latter returns have given him a very considerable advantage. Now if he beats Plaidist by one vote he will be elected, providing the constitutional amendment, which is being voted for, is carried and construed as retroactive. The amendment provides for an election of governor by a plurality vote, but if the amendment fails, or is construed as retroactive in its effect, then Plaidist will fall far short of a majority over all and the question of the selection of governor will be referred to the Legislature, which being largely Republican will select Davis. It looks now as though Davis could hardly fail of winning. The journals of Boston no longer have any doubt of the Republicans having a majority in both branches of the Legislature.

This gives them a United States senator. The Fusionists now, also, give up their claims in the First and Third districts and are beginning to weaken on the governorship. The latest returns strongly point to Davis' election and the Republicans are betting on it.

Portland, Me., September 15.—There are still one hundred and eighty towns to hear from, most of them are small and remote places. The aggregate vote of the State last year was 189,270. This has increased a little over five per cent. so far as received, and if the returns from these towns increase in the same ratio the aggregate will be exactly 146,800, of which the Republicans should have about 73,000, and the Fusionists about 73,000 with scattering votes of about 500. Some of the more remote Fusion districts have brought in a Republican gain. The Fusionists will probably have a trifling plurality which will elect Plaidist, if the amendment is adopted. If it is not adopted, or if it is found unconstitutional on account of being defective, which question has been suggested, the election will go into the legislature. The figures are so close that only the official count can determine, unless decisive gains are made on one side or the other in the remaining towns.

Worcester, Sept. 15.—The platform adopted by the Republican convention declares both parties are to be judged by their acts and that the Republican party courts comparison in its measures with those attempted or accomplished by the Democratic party desires peace and expresses willingness to concede anything save principle to accomplish harmony and feeling between all sections, also it hopes that political rights will be maintained all through the South and distant day, but that cannot be, however, while the negro is intimidated or defrauded of the right of suffrage and counted out, and that Massachusetts will speak an indignant protest against such outrages and invoke the country to do the same, and to urge the government to assist its protective power and insure peaceful elections.

Chicago, Ill., September 15.—The Time's Portland special says the returns from remote towns, of which there are a great many, come in very slowly and it will be impossible to give an accurate statement of Plaidist's plurality for several days. Indeed it is barely possible that he has no plurality and that the Legislature, which is still Republican, will have the election to itself as was the case last year. The Republicans made a strong fight in Malawaka county and are placing a good deal of confidence in the returns from a number of little towns and the regions which gave a heavy Greenback vote last year.

Santa Fe, Sept. 15.—The New Mexican publishes an account of a singular duel between a Ute Indian named Thickque, of Los Pinos agency and a Renegade Navajo. The duel was fought about a Ute girl whom both wished to marry. The fight took place on the La Platta river last Thursday. Weapons, knives. Several friends of each of the Indians were present. The Ute was killed and the Navajo was severely injured.

Berlin, September 15.—Prince Bismarck has been definitely appointed Prussian Minister of trade and commerce. Herr Von Boetticher, supreme president of the province of Schleswing Holstein, has been appointed secretary of the home department. The court of appeals has rejected the request of Count Henry Von Arnim for the suspension of a sentence of imprisonment during his appearance before the supreme court on the charge of treason.

New York, Sept. 15.—The Coney Island handicap races for the two year olds, was won by Dimple, Sir Hugh 2d, 1:47. Free handicap sweep stakes, one mile, was won by Dan Sporting; Reamar 2d, 1:45 1-4. Steeple chase, short course, Belfield won, Sallie Lua 2d, time 4:39.

Portland, Me., Sept. 15.—The congressional delegation stands as follows:

Reed, Republican, re-elected in the 1st district by 109 majority. Frye, Republican, re-elected in the 2nd district by 1,800 majority. Lindsay, Republican, elected in the 3rd district by 141 majority. Ladd, Fusionist, re-elected in the 4th district by a reduced majority. Murch, Fusionist, re-elected in the 5th district by 1,000 to 1,500 majority.

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—The state mineral agent has made an analysis of Tricker's alleged gold bearing spring near Calcestag, and finds not the slightest trace of gold in it. It has been ascertained that Tricker obtained his results by what may be termed salting the water with chloride of gold and then precipitating the gold on to sheet lead. The fraud is effectually exposed.

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—A dispatch from Eureka, Nevada, says that the District Court has decided the case of the Pickard Mining Company against the Albion Company in favor of the latter. The decision sustains the one ledge theory decided by the U. S. Circuit Court in the Eureka Consolidated vs. Richmond case.
